

The Luristan Project - Large Pictures of Cut Sword

 These very large picture serve as permanent record of the project results. Some experts may recognize features not evident to us.

The first picture shows the positions of the scan once more for convenience

Illustration

Part of Kiel half; polished and Nital etched.
Strongly contrast enhanced.

Scan through the backside of the left head (animal part; 1 - 14). Turned 90° for convenience

Scan through the backside of the right head (animal part; (15 - 26) and the "bead" region (38 - 27) Turned 90° for convenience

Link to the text

Scan through the hilt at the upper ring position (97 - 120)

Link to text

Scan through the hilt at the middle ring position (152 - 183)

Link to text

Scan through the hilt at the bottom ring position (121 - 151)

Link to text

Scan through the animals and the hilt (39 - 77)

Link to text

Scan through the blade close to the hilt (upper blade; 184 - 190)

Link to text

Scan through the blade in the middle (middle blade; Nital 191 - 196; Oberhoffer 275 - 281):

Link to text

 Scan through the bottom end of the blade (197 - 202)

Link to text